Representation of Srimathi Puttamma of Doddaballapur requesting that her son, Mr. V.P. Muddukrishna, B.A., may be provided with a probationer's place.

The lady has been constantly petitioning Govt. requesting for a probationer's ~~post~~ post for her Son, Mr. Muddukrishna, B.A. It is understood that the candidate was offered a post in the University Office, but he wants either a probationer's place, or a clerk's post in the Secretariat. He belongs to the Devadasi community.

There is no likelihood of any probationers being entertained in any department at present. In view of the fact that the candidate belongs to a community, which had a social stigma attached to it, and that his appointment is likely to ^{enable} ~~enable~~ the family to earn a decent living, it is for consideration if he may as a very special case, be provided with a post in the Secretariat in an early vacancy.

The Dewan (Sir Mirza Ismail) had ordered in May 41 that he would like something to be done for him early, if possible.
